American Barbecue food is perfect with beer and perfect for casual dining in a bar – and it is fun! A feature of smoked meats is that they are dry-rubbed or marinated first. As a result, some of our dishes are both smoky and spicy but many are not. Some are delicately smoked while others are stronger, like our ribs. But pork loves smoke – try the pulled pork to prove it for yourself! We use all the local suppliers and ingredients that we can but for authenticity some things are imported – Carolina Reapers for our hottest 'loco caliente' sauce being a good example.

MENU

Paris Texas is a small town in north-east Texas. It is also a 1984 Wim Wenders movie starring Harry Dean Stanton and Nastassja Kinski that won the Palme d'Or at the Cannes Film Festival. Of particular note is the movie's soundtrack album composed by Ry Cooder – a quality sound that is distinctive, authentic and uniquely American. It's these attributes that hit exactly on our philosophy "to offer a quality menu that is distinctive, authentic and uniquely American". Adding value to this provides the complete experience.
